

Code of Conduct

We want you to get the most out of our week away at Satellites, make lots of friends, and have a great time. In order for this happen we need to agree how we are going to behave and engage with each other during the event.

Please sign below to show your agreement with the following points and acceptance that if you do not abide by the code of conduct you will be sent home.

I will show respect for my fellow Satellite campers by:

- Being quiet between midnight and seven in the morning
- Not going into other people's tents without permission
- Helping with the cooking and washing up
- Keeping the site clear of rubbish and litter
- Respecting their opinions and not using language that they might find offensive
- Not smoking in any of the tents, gazebos or meeting halls
- Not using recreational drugs or drinking alcohol throughout the event
- Not leaving the Satellites site without the permission of the leaders
- Returning to our camping ground at agreed times for meals and bed
- Answering my phone if a leader is trying to contact me
